All make the Sign of the Cross as the Archbishop says:
In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The people reply:

Amen.

Archbishop says

Peace be with you.

The people reply:

And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

Brothers and sisters
let us acknowledge our sins,
and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

All recite together the formula of general confession:

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking their breast, they say:

through my fault,
through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The absolution by the Archbishop follows:

May almighty God have mercy on us,
forgive us our sins,
and bring us to everlasting life.

Amen.

COLLECT

Let us pray.

Almighty and merciful God,
by whose gift your faithful offer you right and praiseworthy service,
grant, we pray,
that we may hasten without stumbling to receive the things you have promised.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING - Deuteronomy 6:2-6

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart

Moses said to the people: 'If you fear the Lord your God all the days of your life and if you keep all his laws and commandments which I lay on you, you will have a long life, you and your son and your grandson. Listen then, Israel, keep and observe what will make you prosper and give you great increase, as the Lord the God of your fathers has promised you, giving you a land where milk and honey flow. 'Listen, Israel: the Lord our God is the one Lord. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength. Let these words I urge on you today be written on your heart.' The word of the Lord.

All reply:

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 17(18):2-4,47,51

I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, Lord, my strength, my rock, my fortress, my saviour.
My God is the rock where I take refuge; my shield,
my mighty help, my stronghold.
The Lord is worthy of all praise, when I call I am saved from my foes.

I love you, Lord, my strength.

Long life to the Lord, my rock! Praised be the God who saves me,
He has given great victories to his king and shown his love for his anointed.

I love you, Lord, my strength.

SECOND READING - Hebrews 7:23-28

Christ, because he remains for ever, can never lose his priesthood

There used to be a great number of priests under the former covenant, because death put an end to each one of them; but this one, because he remains for ever, can never lose his priesthood. It follows, then, that his power to save is utterly certain, since he is living for ever to intercede for all who come to God through him. To suit us, the ideal high priest would have to be holy, innocent and uncontaminated, beyond the influence of sinners, and raised up above the heavens; one who would not need to offer sacrifices every day, as the other high priests do for their own sins and then for those of the people, because he has done this once and for all by offering himself. The Law appoints high priests who are men subject to weakness; but the promise on oath, which came after the Law, appointed the Son who is made perfect for ever. The word of the Lord.

All reply: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

(All Stand) - cf. Jn 6:63,68

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life;
you have the message of eternal life.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mark 12:28-34

'You are not far from the kingdom of God'

One of the scribes came up to Jesus and put a question to him, 'Which is the first of all the commandments?' Jesus replied, 'This is the first: Listen, Israel, the Lord our God is the one Lord, and you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: You must love your neighbour as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.' The scribe said to him, 'Well spoken, Master; what you have said is true: that he is one and there is no other. To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and strength, and to love your neighbour as yourself, this is far more important than any holocaust or sacrifice.' Jesus, seeing how wisely he had spoken, said, 'You are not far from the kingdom of God.' And after that no one dared to question him any more.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All reply: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.

Where charity and love are, God is there

1. Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor.

The love of Christ has gathered us into one.

Exsultemus et in ipso jucundemur.

Let us exult and rejoice in it.

Timeamus et amemus Deum vivum,

Let us fear and love the living God.

Et ex corde diligamur nos sincero.

And let us sincerely love each other from the heart.

2. Simul ergo cum in unum congregamur.

Therefore, let us gather together as one.

Ne nos mente dividamur, caveamus.

Let us beware lest we be divided in mind.

Cessent iurgia maligna, cessent lites.

Let all evil strife cease, let fights cease,

Et in medio nostri sit Christus Deus.

And may Christ our God be in the midst of us.

3. Simul quoque cum beatis videamus

Together may we see with the blessed,

Gloriantur vultum tuum, Christe Deus.

To glory in your face, O Christ our God.

Gaudium quod est immensum, atque proven, probum, sæcula per infinita sæculorum.

A joy which is immense, and also tested, for infinite ages of ages.

Archbishop: Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

The people reply: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

May these sacrificial offerings, O Lord, become for you a pure oblation,
and for us a holy outpouring of your mercy.
Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Extending his hands, the Archbishop says: The Lord be with you.

The people reply: And with your spirit.

The Archbishop, raising his hands, continues: Lift up your hearts.

The people: We lift them up to the Lord.

The Archbishop, with hands extended, adds:
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

The people: It is right and just.

The Archbishop continues with the Preface.

PREFACE

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Father most holy, through your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, your Word through whom you made all things, whom you sent as our Saviour and Redeemer, incarnate by the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin.

Fulfilling your will and gaining for you a holy people, he stretched out his hands as he endured his Passion, so as to break the bonds of death and manifest the resurrection.

And so, with the Angels and all the Saints we declare your glory, as with one voice we acclaim:

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus Dóminus Deus Sábaoth.

Pleni sunt cæli et terra glória tua.

Hosáнна in excélsis.

Benedíctus qui venit in nómine Dómini.

Hosáнна in excélsis.

After this the congregation kneels for the remainder of the Eucharistic Prayer.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER III

The Archbishop alone says:

You are indeed Holy, O Lord, and all you have created rightly gives you praise, for through your Son our Lord Jesus Christ, by the power and working of the Holy Spirit, you give life to all things and make them holy, and you never cease to gather a people to yourself, so that from the rising of the sun to its setting a pure sacrifice may be offered to your name.

Therefore, O Lord, we humbly implore you: by the same Spirit graciously make holy these gifts we have brought to you for consecration, that they may become the Body and ✠ Blood of your Son our Lord Jesus Christ, at whose command we celebrate these mysteries.

For on the night he was betrayed he himself took bread, and, giving you thanks, he said the blessing, broke the bread and gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY,
WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

In a similar way, when supper was ended, he took the chalice, and, giving you thanks, he said the blessing, and gave the chalice to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT,
FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD,
THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT, WHICH WILL BE POURED OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY
FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.
DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

Mystérium fidei.

Mortem tuam annuntiámus, Dómine, et tuam resurrectionem confitémur, donec vénias.

Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, we offer you, Lord, the Bread of life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.

Humbly we pray
that, partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ,
we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit.

Remember, Lord, your Church, spread throughout the world,
and bring her to the fullness of charity,
together with N. our Pope and N. our Bishop and all the clergy.

Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy:
welcome them into the light of your face.
Have mercy on us all, we pray,
that with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God,
with blessed Joseph, her Spouse,
with the blessed Apostles,
and all the Saints who have pleased you throughout the ages,
we may merit to be co-heirs to eternal life,
and may praise and glorify you through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Doxology

Through him, and with him, and in him,
O God, almighty Father,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honour is yours,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

THE COMMUNION RITE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

The congregation stands and the Archbishop says:

At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

Together with the people, he continues:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

The Archbishop alone continues, saying:

Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil,
graciously grant peace in our days,
that, by the help of your mercy,
we may be always free from sin
and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

The people conclude the prayer, acclaiming:

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

Then the Archbishop alone says aloud:

Lord Jesus Christ,
who said to your Apostles:
Peace I leave you, my peace I give you,
look not on our sins,
but on the faith of your Church,
and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will.

Who live and reign for ever and ever.

The people reply: Amen.

The Archbishop adds:

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

*The people reply: And with your spirit.

The Archbishop adds:

Let us offer each other the sign of peace.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Then he takes the host, breaks it over the paten, and places a small piece in the chalice, saying quietly:

May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it.

During the breaking of the host the following is sung:

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccáta mundi:miserére nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccáta mundi:miserére nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccáta mundi:dona nobis pacem.

The Archbishop genuflects, takes the host and, holding it slightly raised above the paten or above the chalice says aloud:

Behold the Lamb of God,
behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

And together with the people he adds once:

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed

COMMUNION HYMNS

Notas mihi fecisti vias vitæ tuæ: adimplebis me lætitia mea cum vultu tuo, Domine.	You have shown me the paths of your life you have filled me with my joy at your face, Lord.
---	--

1. Sweet Heart of Jesus! Fount of love and mercy
Today we come thy blessings to implore;
Oh touch our hearts so cold and so ungrateful,
And make them Lord, thine own for evermore.

Sweet Heart of Jesus! We implore,
Oh, make us love thee, more and more.

2. Sweet Heart of Jesus! Make us pure and gentle And teach us how to do thy blessed will;
To follow close the print of thy dear footsteps,
And when we fall, sweet heart oh, love us still.

Dulcis Christe, o bone Deus
O amor meus, o vita mea,
O salus mea, o gloria mea.
Tu es Creator,
tu es Salvator mundi.
Te volo, te quæro,
te adoro, o dulcis amor,
te adoro, o care Jesu.

Sweet Christ, o good God,
O my love, O my life,
O my salvation, O my glory.
You are Creator,
You are the Saviour of the world.
I want you, I seek you,
I adore you, O sweet love,
I adore you, O dear Jesus.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Let us pray.
May the working of your power, O Lord,
increase in us, we pray,
so that, renewed by these heavenly Sacraments,
we may be prepared by your gift
for receiving what they promise.
Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

The Archbishop says: The Lord be with you.

The people reply: And with your spirit.

May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, ✠ and the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

(RECESSIONAL HYMN)

1. Far above, enthroned in glory,
and for all eternity,
Near to God and near to Mary,
How our hearts rejoice in thee.
2. Here on earth you were so lowly,
Meek and kind, the friend of all.
Will you now be less a helper
When to you in heaven we call?

Dear Saint Martin, hear our prayer, / Let our cry not be in vain.
Lead us to our home in heaven / Through all grief and joy and pain.

Archbishop and Dominican Community process to the Shrine of St. Martin.

BLESSING OF THE SHRINE

Archbishop: The Lord be with you

Resp: And with your spirit.

Almighty everlasting God, who do not forbid us to carve or paint likenesses of your saints and dedicate places of prayer to their memory and intercession, in order that whenever we look at them with our bodily eyes we may call to mind their holy lives, and resolve to follow in their footsteps; may it please you to bless + and to hallow + this shrine which has been made in memory of Saint Martin De Porres of the Order of Preachers.

Grant that all who in this place pay devout homage to St. Martin may by his merits and intercession obtain your grace and health in this life and everlasting glory in the life to come. Through Christ our Lord.

The Shrine is sprinkled with Holy Water

Most humble Saint Martin, whose burning charity embraces all, but especially those who are sick, afflicted or in need, we turn to you for help in our present difficulties, and we implore you to obtain for us from God, health of soul and body and in particular the favour we now ask.....

May we, by imitating your charity and humility, find quiet and contentment all our days and cheerful submission to God's holy will, in all the trials and difficulties of life. Pray for us Saint Martin, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray: O God, who exalts the humble and who made Saint Martin your confessor, to enter into the heavenly kingdom, grant through his merits and intercession, that we may so follow the example of his humility on earth as to deserve to be exalted with him in heaven.

Through Our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

NOTE OF THANKS

On behalf of the Irish Dominicans and St. Martin Apostolate, I would like to thank all who have contributed to the restoration of the National Shrine of St. Martin De Porres here at St. Saviour's in Dominick Street and made this day possible.

Devotion to St. Martin in Ireland takes its origin in Holy Cross Dominican Church in Tralee in the early 1940s where it was begun by Fr. Stephen Glendon OP having returned from preaching in the United States with an inspiration to spread devotion to Blessed Martin. The story of Martin was preached in the United States as an answer to the divisions in American society caused by apartheid. Ireland as a nation, while not having issues of apartheid in the 1940's had a great love for foreign missions conducted by thousands of Irish Missionaries abroad. Many Irish labourers abroad however did feel the effects of apartheid particularly in Britain and the United States and so devotion to Blessed Martin was an answer to much suffering and misunderstanding. Blessed Martin quickly became patron of the underclass and labourers as well as the sick and suffering.

It was in Tralee that the first image of Blessed Martin was publicly venerated and where to this day, his painting still hangs at the entrance to St. Ann's Chapel. Fr Glendon OP moved to Cork and another shrine was built due to the increase in devotion and interest in the Dominican Blessed.

In 1947 the Dominican Provincial, Fr. Geelan OP formally established the Blessed Martin Apostolate and decided that its headquarters should be homed at the principal church of the Order in Ireland, St. Saviour's in Dominick Street, Dublin 1. The Apostolate was placed under the spiritual directorship of Fr. Louis Coffey OP. His zeal and devotion to Blessed Martin was outstanding, and his chief aim was to promote devotion to Blessed Martin and to obtain prayers for his canonisation. Later the Apostolate would develop into the central office for fundraising for the Irish Dominican Missions, and the publication of the Blessed Martin Magazine in 1952.

Fr Coffey's work came to fruition with the Canonisation of St Martin in Rome by Pope Saint John XXIII in 1962. While far from retiring Fr. Coffey began fundraising for a National Shrine in 1964 for the new saint and this was opened in St. Saviours Church in 1966.

In 2024 with the 800th Anniversary of the arrival of the Dominican Friars in Dublin, we decided as an Apostolate, to renovate the 58-year-old National Shrine in St. Saviour's and make it worthy of devotion once again.

As Pope St. John said in his homily for the Canonisation of St. Martin,

"The virtuous example and even the conversation of this saintly man exerted a powerful influence in drawing people to religion. It is remarkable how even today his influence can still bring us toward the things of heaven."

We hope the renovated shrine will lead to a greater devotion and love of God and to his humble servant St Martin.

As you look above the altar you will see the original painting which hung from the loggia of St. Peters Basilica in Rome in 1962 at his Canonisation. Here Martin is depicted in glory, where he calls each one of us to raise our eyes from our worries and problems and to trust in God and his intercession for each of us.

We thank God today for all our benefactors both living and deceased, and we remember especially all those who handed devotion to the Saint onto us.

On behalf of us all at St. Martins Apostolate we thank you sincerely, and we invoke St. Martins protection upon you and your families.

Fr. John H Walsh O.P.
